HEADLINE: Solving local government's problems

BYLINE: THE PRESS-ENTERPRISE

BODY:

Public officials interested in learning how to manage local-government problems, such as skyrocketing pension costs and traffic gridlock, can attend a training program Friday and Saturday at Claremont McKenna College.

The Academy for Civic Engagement will feature a debate Friday between former state Republican leader Jim Brulte, of Rancho Cucamonga, and former Assembly Speaker Bob Hertzberg, D-Van Nuys.

The Rose Institute of State and Local Government has invited public and private sector professionals and educators to speak at the event.

Anyone who wants to attend can contact G. David Huntoon at (909) 621-8159.
